ACCESS TO EVENT WHEN THERE IS NO BOXING CANADA OFFICIAL TEAM STAFF PROVIDED:

It is possible that a coach can receive accreditation for an international event if there is no team staff provided or available. The following policies outline guidelines within this scenario.

In order for the personal coach to be approved for the purchase of an accreditation, the following must ALL apply:

2. Accreditations must be available for that event.
3. Coach must agree to pay all fees associated with the accreditation.
4. Coach must be endorsed by the team High Performance/Head Coach and Boxing Canada.
5. Coach must be a Boxing Canada member in good standing
6. Coach must sign a release of liability as well as agree to Boxing Canada's Code of Conduct policies.
7. Coach must conform to all Boxing Canada uniform requirements, including purchasing team uniforms at the coach's expense.
8. Coach must meet the Boxing Canada and AIBA requirement for traveling with the National Team for AIBA sanctioned event. (see Annex 1)

Any personal coach in the field of play must have an accreditation and team uniform.

All requests and purchases of accreditations must be completed prior to the trip with approval from Boxing Canada. No onsite accreditation purchases are allowed.

Note: All requests might not be granted nor guaranteed. Boxing Canada may not be able to secure the requested accreditations or access to team accommodation. Boxing Canada will confirm all requests individually.
