

2020 Olympic Games Nomination Procedures

Event: 2020 Olympic Games
Date: 24/07/2020 to 10/08/2020
Location: Tokyo, Japan
Selection Date: June 4, 2020
Published: February 4th, 2019
Reviewed: By Boxing Canada High Performance Advisory Group

1) Introduction:

This document outlines the qualification and nomination procedures of Boxing Canada for determining those athletes, coaches and staff who will be nominated to the Canadian Olympic Committee (COC) for selection to represent Canada at the 2020 Olympic Games as members of the Canadian Elite 2020 Olympic Games Boxing Team.

The objective of this nomination process is to identify and nominate athletes capable of a podium finish at the 2020 Olympic Games. Nomination by Boxing Canada does NOT guarantee selection. Selection is subject to final approval by the COC Team Selection Committee.

For clarifications or questions relating to this document or Olympic selection process, please refer to Boxing Canada website under the documents section (<https://boxingcanada.org/documents/>) or contact Boxing Canada High Performance Director (HPD): dtrepanier@boxingcanada.org.

2) Decision Making Authority:

The High Performance Director (HPD), or their designate, is responsible for developing and approving the selection process and procedures for the team that will be nominated to the IOC for the 2020 Olympic Continental Qualifier. Prior to publication, the Boxing Canada 2020 Olympic Games Nomination Procedures were submitted to the High Performance Advisory Group for review and were also discussed and shared with the Canadian Olympic Committee (COC).

The High Performance Director is responsible for the implementation of these procedures. All team nominations, including alternates and staff, will be ratified by the Executive Director (ED).

During the actual competition period onsite at the 2020 Olympic Games, all final decision-making authority will reside with the High Performance Director, or their designate.

3) Boxing Canada Identification of Eligibility:

To be eligible for selection for the 2020 Olympic Games, an athlete must:

11) Injury

The HPD retains the right to determine at its sole discretion the course of action to be taken in the event that an athlete selected for nomination to the 2020 Olympic Games Team is injured prior to any COC or IOC deadlines requiring specific naming of 2020 Olympic Games Team members. Any such exercise of discretion shall be subject to Canadian legal principles of procedural fairness and natural justice.

12) Mandatory Training Camp:

Mandatory training camp for Qualifying Team Members will be scheduled prior to the 2020 Olympic Games. Full participation is mandatory and failure to participate will result in removal from participation as a Qualifying Team Member.

Here are the relevant dates and location (subject to change):

- 05/07 to 11/07 – Olympic Games Training Camp 1st Part - Montreal, Quebec
- 12/07 to 21/07 – Olympic Games Training Camp 2nd Part – Aizuwakamatsu, Japan

The objective of these training camps is to ensure the athletes are consistent with the Boxing Canada Gold Medal Profil parameters, aimed at aligning competition behaviours to what is required to achieve top international performances.

13) Removal of a Boxer from Team:

The High Performance Director, or their designate reserves the right to withdraw an athlete from nomination:

- If the athlete has not fulfilled his/her responsibilities with respect to mandatory training camps, testing, and competitions;
- If the athlete has not fulfilled his/her responsibilities as identified in the Boxing Canada Athlete Agreement;
- If the athlete is found to be in breach of the Boxing Canada Code of Conduct by a duly appointed disciplinary panel in accordance with the Boxing Canada Discipline Policy;
- If the athlete has been found to have committed an anti-doping rule violation by an Anti-Doping Organization with jurisdiction over the athlete. For the avoidance of doubt, this could include the CCES, and the IOC, or a National Anti-Doping Organization from the country in which the athlete is located and is subject to doping control;
- If the athlete is unable to perform due to injury, illness or other medical reasons as supported by a Boxing Canada authorized physician.

Following nomination to the COC, any such removals are subject to approval by the COC Team Selection Committee. After July 6, 2020, any substitutions is also subject to the Tokyo 2020 Late Athlete Replacement Policy.

14) Nomination – Coaching Staff and Support Staff:

The staff will be selected based on the principle of sending a team that is best capable of assisting athletes in achieving podium performances at this event as well as contributing to a winning team culture.

Staff selections will be based on final confirmation of COC quota allocations. Any decisions on the distribution of accreditations falls within the authority of the High Performance Director.

Notwithstanding COC staff quota allocations noted above, Boxing Canada may consider the selection of support staff in a non-accredited capacity. Any decisions on the selection of support staff in a non-accredited falls within the authority of the High Performance Director.

All coaches must also:

- Be a member in good standing with Boxing Canada
- Be a member in good standing with the Professional Coaching Program of the Coaching Association of Canada, either as a Chartered Professional Coach or Registered Coach
- Comply with all COC requirements

15) Funding Support for 2020 Olympic Games Selected Athletes:

Funding support for selected athletes, coaches and support staff will be in alignment with the COC funding politics and dependent on any Boxing Canada funding restrictions.

16) Amendments and Unforeseen Circumstances:

In situations where unforeseen circumstances do not allow the selection process to be fairly and objectively applied, the High Performance Director, in consultation with the Executive Director, reserves the right to rule on an appropriate course of action.

17) Appeals:

Appeals to Boxing Canada's nominations will be subject to the Appeal Policy of Boxing Canada which is available on Boxing Canada's website (www.boxingcanada.org).

18) Announcement of 2020 Olympic Games Boxing Team:

Team selection will be made no later than June 4th, 2020. Boxing Canada will announce the team through established communication channels (Branches, Boxing Canada website and Social Media). Athlete involved in the nomination procedure will be contacted directly on the day of the team selection.

19) Changes to this document:

Boxing Canada's HPD reserves the right to make changes to this document prior to the Selection Date, which in their discretion are necessary to ensure selection of the best athletes possible for the 2020 Olympic Games. The HPD may change the criteria under the following circumstances:

1. When additional (or altered) information that is deemed relevant by the HPD to the Criteria is provided by external parties, such as (but not limited to) an event organizing committee, Sport Canada, the IOC, COC or any other relevant organization;
2. To correct, clarify or amend any inconsistencies, errors or omissions in the Criteria.

Any changes to this document shall be approved by Boxing Canada ED and communicated directly to all Elite National Team Pool Members and published on Boxing Canada's website.
