

BOXING CANADA

HALL OF FAME – NOMINATION PROCEDURES

Purpose

To formally recognize the achievements of those Boxers, both Male and Female who have achieved exceptional results throughout their boxing careers, both at the National level and the International level.

To formally recognize the dedication, leadership and abilities of those individuals who have made an outstanding contribution to the development of Boxing in Canada.

Therefore, there will be two (2) categories of membership in the Boxing Canada Hall of Fame: Athlete and Builder.

Acknowledgement

The Boxing Canada Hall of Fame shall be located within the National Office, where an acknowledgement of the achievements of the inductees shall be kept for public viewing.

A special section on Boxing Canada's website will also display the inductees' profiles and accomplishments.

The provincial boxing association of the inductee shall receive a duplicate of the citation of achievements.

Selection Committee

Members shall be appointed because of their knowledge in the history, tradition and skills of boxing and whose prestige, judgement and integrity are most likely to ensure the fair and impartial assessment of the qualities of the candidates submitted.

Appointments of the Committee shall be made with the object of securing maximum continuity of composition of the Committee.

The Boxing Canada Board of Directors shall appoint a Chairman of the Selection Committee who reports directly to the Executive Director

The Selection Committee shall consist of at least two members of Boxing Canada Hall of Fame and the Chair. The Executive Director of Boxing Canada shall be an ex-officio member and the secretary of the Committee.

Induction

Members will be formally inducted into the Hall of Fame, the place and time to be determined by the Executive Director. In absence of a special event, the induction may take place during a National or Provincial Championships.

Nomination procedures

1. Nominations shall be made in writing and must be filed with the Executive Director c/o the Boxing Canada Office by January 31 of each year. Nomination documents must include:
 - Nomination Form – Appendix A
 - Eligibility Form (Athlete or Builder) – Appendix B or C
 - A 5"x7" photograph of the person being nominated

2. The nominator should ensure that the nominee meets the Eligibility Criteria described in this document.
 3. Nominations may originate from an individual (no self-nomination), club, association, or by a member of the Selection Committee (hereafter called the Committee).
 4. The Executive Director shall send out to each member of the Committee, a copy of each nomination and recommendation received and all supporting material, together with the names of their respective nominators. This shall be done following the close of nominations.
 5. The Committee shall review the nominations and present a list of recommended candidates to be vetted by the Executive Director of Boxing Canada.
 6. Inductees shall be announced following Board approval at the Annual General Meeting of Boxing Canada.
 7. Hall of Fame inductees will automatically become Boxing Canada Life Members.
 8. If the Chair of the Committee is not a member of the Hall of Fame, he/she will not be eligible for nomination while on the Committee and for a period of one year after leaving the Committee.
 9. The Committee shall have the responsibility to ensure the integrity and quality of the Hall of Fame is maintained. The number of members inducted in any one year shall be at the sole discretion of the Committee. The Committee shall not be obligated to admit anyone in any given year.

Removal

An inductee into the Boxing Canada Hall of Fame may be expelled from it on any or more of the following grounds:

- Contravention of the Boxing Canada Constitution or any rules made hereunder;
- Conduct contrary to the ethics of Olympic boxing and Boxing Canada;
- Conviction for commission of an indictable offence under Federal or Provincial law

The procedure to expel the inductee shall be the procedure for expulsion of a member of the Association as set out in the Constitution of the Association.
