3. SELECTION

Boxing Canada's HPD will review all applications, and the candidates who meet the requirements will be ranked and selected based on the following criteria:

1. Personal coach of an athlete attending a target event
2. Experience as a coach with the National Team in an international competition or training camp
3. Experience as a coach with a PTSO Team
4. Current NCCP certification level

Selection will also be based on the total number of coach/staff entries allocated to Boxing Canada by the hosting committee of each event.

5. COMMUNICATION

Boxing Canada will publish the selection process for HPPC applicants through email and Boxing Canada's website.

6. PROCESS AND TIMELINE

Nominees interested in applying for the HPPC pilot program must do so via the designated online form before any posted deadlines. The application form may be found here.

PTSO nominees must provide a letter of support from the organization's President, Executive Director or High Performance Lead. Applicants will be notified of the outcome of their submission via email.

Only coaches meeting eligibility requirements will be reviewed.

Coach selection will be conducted by Boxing Canada's High Performance director in consultation with Boxing Canada's High Performance Advisory Group

7. FUNDING

The selected HPPC will cover all expenses associated with participation in camps and competitions.
